Dear _____:

The Academic Libraries Book Acquisition Systems Association, Inc. (ALBASA, Inc.) will be celebrating its 46th Annual General Assembly with a seminar, book fair, and business meeting. This will be held on May 22-24, 2019, at J Centre Convention Hall, 3rd level, J Centre Mall, A.S. Fortuna St., Bakilid, Mandaue City.

This year's theme is "Life-Changing Skills for a Meaningful and Satisfying Work Performance" with the following objectives:

1. To acquire new skills in enhancing professionalism in the workplace;
2. To describe and recognize potential at work with key attributes that can benefit the organization and the workers in particular;
3. To explain and translate the data privacy act to be fully understood and adopted by librarians and information professionals in the current work setting;
4. To discuss and uphold the highest ethical standards in conducting research;
5. To provide a convenient venue for member institutions to make live book selection for collection development of their libraries;
6. To facilitate a harmonious relationship among stakeholders, reliable partners, ALBASA management, and its members.

In this light, we are inviting Librarians, library administrators, information professionals, and library personnel to join the seminar-workshop. Seminar registration starts at 1:00 PM on May 22, 2019. Non-member participants will pay a registration fee of Php 4,000.00 inclusive of seminar kit, certificate, hand-outs, two-day morning and afternoon snacks and lunch, and participation in the Fellowship Night in a Masquerade Attire. You may send ahead the payment to any of the following bank accounts:
